Head of Programme Delivery

WHY CHANGE? THE CASE FOR A NEW OS PROCESS

Objective
Evaluate current EOI process deliver a simpler, faster, and more transparent
EOI process.

Improve Efficiency for all,
clarity,
efficiency, reduce effort
for applicants.

Feedback
Stakeholder feedback has shaped every step.

Summary of actions taken:

- Extensive consultation and engagement with industry since September 2024
- Redesign of the EOI process and workflow
- Simplify the application process
- Digital and operational capability for scalable, high-impact delivery

Efficient: move from text heavy application to a structured presentation and Q&A.

Effective: greater project insight and clarity is gained from presentation approach and direct engagement.

Aligned: Strategic Programme aligned to SME and Non-CO₂ Programme process. Strengths and challenges of implementing a robust process well understood.

User focus: implementation of the most preferred option from our applicants. Flexible and allowing complexity to be articulated.

Application scope and criteria

TECHNOLOGY

Alignment with the ATI technology strategy and aircraft level benefits

- How the technology aligns with the ATI's technology strategy and its potential impact on UK aerospace.
- Explain the aircraft technology benefits, including how it improves cost, efficiency, reduces weight, enhances performance and/or how it supports the UK's competitiveness.

Technology ambition

- The innovation step, compare the proposed technology to current industry solutions and known competitor R&D.
- Is the project's ambition realistic and proportionate, with a scope and timeline that align with its objectives and intended outcomes.
- Outline the challenge and how it will be addressed, the start and end technology maturity, and the intended outcomes and exploitation plans.

Technology approach

- A breakdown of defined work packages, with clear, proportionate objectives and deliverables for each project partner.
- Provide clear plans, which may include, KPIs, milestones, and risk management, and highlight links to any other ATI or externally funded initiatives.

CAPITAL INFRASTRUCTURE PROJECTS

Pre-submission engagement with the ATI

Pre-Submission

Early engagement with the ATI is required to ensure an application is suitable and ready to be submitted to the Strategic Programme.

Funding

Seeking 100% public funding may make your project less competitive in value for money, when compared to proposals that include private capital.

Strengthening Applications

To strengthen your application and demonstrate broader commitment to the project, we encourage you to explore opportunities for additional private investment.
